TOWN AND CHAMBER SET DATE FOR STATE OF THE TOWN

Working together to strengthen the partnership between the Town of Hanover and its vital business community, the Town and the Hanover Chamber of Commerce have jointly announced the scheduling of the 2014 “State of the Town” address.

The address will be held at the Hanover Town Hall on Thursday, February 13th, 2014, at 7:30 A.M. Following a new tradition began last year to rave reviews, the breakfast will include an update on Town affairs by Chairman of the Board of Selectmen Joseph Salvucci and Town Manager Troy Clarkson. Representatives from the Hanover School Department will attend with an update on School activities. Chamber representatives will also provide an update on the business environment in Town, featuring highlights on developments at the Hanover Mall. State and regional elected officials have also been invited to attend.

“Our strong partnership with the Town of Hanover continues,” said Chamber President Cathy Follett. “Our cooperative working relationship with town government has blossomed. We now have a presence in Town Hall and this address symbolizes that partnership,” she continued.

One of the primary goals for the Board of Selectmen for the last year has been to strengthen the town’s partnership with the business community. This effort includes conducting active outreach to the business served by the Town.

The annual address was formerly held as a dinner meeting. This is the second year of a new format is designed to accommodate residents and business owners with busy schedules and the location of Town Hall is designed to symbolize the growing bond between the Town and the Chamber.

Department Heads will also be on hand to answer questions and engage with the public in attendance.

Cost of the breakfast is $10.00. Those interested in attending should RSVP to Ann Lee, 781-826-5000 ext. 1033.
