

HANDS FREE LAW

Chapter 90, § 13B

Drivers are now
prohibited from:

holding a mobile electronic device

looking at a mobile electronic device unless:
-viewing navigation &
-device affixed to vehicle

using a mobile electronic device unless in hands-free mode

*operation of a mobile electronic device by which a user engages in a voice communication or receives audio without touching or holding the device; provided, however, that a mobile electronic device may require a single tap or swipe to activate, deactivate or initiate the hands-free mode feature

Emergency Defense

Evidence that the use of a mobile device was in response to an emergency is a defense

For qualifying emergencies, remember: HANDs-free

- Help needed (medical)
- Accident on roadway
- Needs assistance (police, fire, emergency services)
- Disabled vehicle

Fine Structure

-  $100 fine (not surchargeable)
-   $250 fine + program completion (not surchargeable)
-    $500 fine + program completion (surchargeable)

First Responder Exemption

This law does not apply to public safety personnel or emergency first responders using a mobile electronic device while operating an emergency services vehicle and engaged in the performance of their duties

Feb. 23, 2020
Law becomes effective

Mar. 31, 2020
citations for all violations

citations issued for only subsequent offenses and typing or reading of electronic message

Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association
Office of General Counsel
353 Providence Road
South Grafton, MA 01590

