PRESS RELEASE

THE TOWN OF HANOVER TOGETHER WITH THE HANOVER CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ARE PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THE 2021 STATE OF THE TOWN BREAKFAST

The Town of Hanover and the Hanover Chamber of Commerce will once again team up to provide citizens, businesses, and elected officials an update on the affairs of the Community at the Annual State of the Town Breakfast, to be held on Tuesday, June 1, 2021 at 7:30am in Laura's Center for the Arts at the Emilson Hanover YMCA, located at 97 Mill Street, Hanover, MA 02339.

Chamber of Commerce President Erin Richardson will Host and MC this year's event. South Shore YMCA CEO Paul Gorman and David Delaney, Chairman of the Hanover Board of Selectmen, will welcome the attendees who typically represent a wide cross-section of business, civic, and political leaders in the region, and Town Manager Joe Colangelo will provide an update on the State of the Town. This year's speakers include Frank Giglio of Merchants Row, Jill Donelan of the Hanover Farmers Market, and Ed Callahan of Hanover Crossing.

This breakfast is an opportunity to highlight the relationships that the Chamber of Commerce and the Town of Hanover have forged with local business owners.

Those interested in attending may sign up at www.hanovermachamber.com or contact Janet Tierney at janet.tierney@hanover-ma.gov.

Ticket price: $15.00
